

- TXA
 - AAGBI - >500ml after vaginal or >1000ml after C/S
 - RCOG guidelines - 'seldom have place in management of obstetric haemorrhage' - revised 2016 - consider use at C/S in women at increased risk of PPH
 - WOMAN study - reduces mortality due to PPH. should be given as early as possible after onset of bleeding
 - WHO - if uterotonics fail or if bleeding may be partly due to trauma
 - NICE guidelines - 'additional option'

- Fibrinogen concentrate [FC]
 - unlicensed use in PPH
 - ↑fibrinogen by 1g/L requires about 60mg/kg FC
- PTCC
 - off-label use, may be a/w thrombotic events
- rFVIIa [NovoSeven]
 - RCOG - routine use not recommended unless part of a clinical trial [new 2016]

